

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

2020 VIP Premier Indoor Viewing Location with Breakfast for 2

Enjoy reserved seating and breakfast for two at a private indoor location to view the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade on Thursday, November 26, 2020. This premier viewing location is confidential and is not disclosed until closer to Thanksgiving.

Watching the parade on Thanksgiving morning is a holiday tradition for many, as more than 50 million people catch it on television each year. Another three million people line the streets of downtown New York City, but you can watch it from an indoor VIP venue along the 2-mile parade route, which begins on Central Park West and ends at Macy's Herald Square on 34th Street.

Package includes a dedicated travel agent to book all reservations for your Experience and assist with airfare, hotel nights and more. Must be booked a minimum of 60 days in advance.
